When you clerk with us, you're not just observing - you're engaging, learning, and building the foundation for your future in law.

"My clerkship at WRP Legal was an incredibly rewarding experience. I was trusted to contribute to real work on interesting matters, which made me feel like a genuine part of the team and not just an observer. I was supported with insights from mentors at every level.

I'm now proud to be working at WRP Legal in a permanent role, continuing to learn and grow every day."
